

Understanding the Young English Learner

Linguistic Diversity in Toddler, Child Care, and Preschool Programs

OaklandSchools

Tuesday, September 9, 2008 and Monday, September 15, 2008
Both workshops are 4:30 - 8:00 PM

Foundational Understandings of Linguistically Diverse Children and Families

Please join us for Session I on Tuesday, September 9, 2008 for an informative session on foundational understandings of linguistically diverse children and families. We will cover the overview of Second Language Acquisition Information: diversity and parenting practices including care practices and independent vs. collective cultures; belief systems; and honoring children's first language.

Strategies for Working with Young English Language Learners

Session II is on Monday, September 15, 2008. We will cover expectations for Second Language Acquisition with Young Children: second language development stages; how to work with children who do not speak English; how to respond to behavior issues; working with families' issues about first and second languages; strategies to support young ELL children in their play; and fostering friendships with ELL children.

Attendance is required for both days to receive SBCEUs
Speaker: Jackie Moose-Burke, MA, Linguistics
